

Temporary Traffic Control Plan Development Workshop

What is it?

National training program performed by the Wayne State University Transportation Research Group under the Federal Highway Administration Work Zone Safety Grant focusing on:

- Utility Work Zones
- Urban Work Zones
- Short-Term, Short-Duration, and Mobile Work Zones
- Temporary Traffic Control Plan Selection Software
 - <http://workzone.eng.wayne.edu/#ttcp>
- Work Zone Safety Compendium
 - <http://workzone.eng.wayne.edu/#compendium>
- Temporary Traffic Control Case Studies

Who is it for?

Engineers, planners, field personnel, foremen, safety inspectors, and other individuals involved with work zone temporary traffic control

What is the cost?

Free

How long is the workshop?

Workshop provides six hours of Personal Development Hour credit

To become a host or for additional information on this workshop, please contact Tapan Datta, Ph.D., P.E. at tdatta@eng.wayne.edu or (313)577-9154

<http://workzone.eng.wayne.edu/>

U.S. Department of Transportation
Federal Highway Administration